PETITIONING THE COURT

TO ISSUE A WARRANT

CONDITION

Allegation 1

Mandatory

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Allegation 2

Mandatory

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.

NATURE OF NONCOMPLIANCE

On or about July 8, 2024, the Richardson Police Department conducted an investigative stop on the vehicle where Mr. Morton was the passenger. During a pat search of Mr. Morton for weapons, a small plastic bag fell from his waistband. The bag contained multiple smaller bags with multicolored pills which Mr. Morton identified as ecstasy, and a white powdery substance which he identified as cocaine. Mr. Morton immediately stated the bag contained drugs, that he was a drug user, and none of it was his wife's, who was the driver of the vehicle.

Mr. Morton also advised a backpack on the front passenger floorboard was his property and there was marijuana inside it. During the subsequent search of the vehicle, officers located the backpack which contained multiple cell phones, two baggies containing marijuana, small plastic jewelry bags, and $1,046 in U.S. currency.

Mr. Morton was arrested for the following charges:

- 1) Possession of a Controlled Substance PG 1/1B
>= 1G<4G – Cocaine – 3rd Degree felony.
- 2) Manufacture/Delivery Controlled Substance PG
2 or 2-A >= 4G <400G – Ecstasy – 1st Degree
Felony
- 3) Manufacture/Delivery Controlled Substance PG
2 or 2-A >= 4G <400G – Adderall – 1st Degree
Felony
- 4) Possession of Marijuana <2oz – Class B
Misdemeanor

Charges 1 and 4 noted above were subsequently dropped by the assigned Detective with the Richardson Police Department. Mr. Morton posted bond on the other two charges, and they remain pending as of this writing.

Allegation 3

Mandatory

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

On April 17, 2023; December 6, 2023; April 9, 2024; and April 30, 2024, the defendant reported to the U.S. Probation Office and submitted a urine sample which tested positive for the use marijuana. All four urine samples were confirmed positive for THC use by Alere Toxicology Services Inc.

Allegation 4

Standard

(7) The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician.

Allegation 5

Standard

(6) The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment.

On April 9, 2024, the defendant informed the U.S. Probation Office that he moved to a new residence in Prosper, Texas, at the end of March 2024 and failed to notify the probation office at least ten days prior to his change in residence.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation and Justification:

Corey Troy Morton began his term of supervised release in the Eastern District of Texas, Plano Division on February 13, 2023. Jurisdiction of Mr. Morton's case was initially out of the Eastern District of Missouri, and he was approved to be supervised in the Eastern District of Texas and reside with his cousin in Princeton, Texas, mostly because he wanted a fresh start and preferred to be away from the Eastern District of Missouri where his instant offense originated.

Between April 17, 2023, and April 30, 2024, Mr. Morton admitted and tested positive for the use of marijuana on four separate occasions. Further, Mr. Morton has been able to secure stable employment while on supervision; however, he has had issues with securing a stable residence. Mr. Morton was receiving drug treatment with Fletcher

Counseling in Plano, Texas, at a rate of two sessions per month and was also approved for telehealth sessions so it would not interfere with his hours of employment.

On April 5, 2024, the defendant was issued a citation in Little Elm, Texas, for Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and Open Container-Driver; however, these charges were dismissed on June 14, 2024.

Mr. Morton has been provided with the resources to make better decisions, however; he continues to put himself in situations that violate his conditions of supervised release and has been reminded of the consequences on several occasions. Therefore, it is respectfully recommended the Court issue a warrant for Corey Troy Morton to appear in court and show cause why his supervision should not be revoked.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
